School of Law

Office of the Dean

Dear School of Law Graduate:

We are pleased to present you with the 1996 Alumni Directory of the Washington University School of Law. The Directory contains current information on the majority of our 5900 alumni. We now have graduates living in every state of the union and 16 other countries.

The Directory generally follows the format of the 1990 Directory. Graduates are listed alphabetically, geographically, by class year, and by practice area. We have added e-mail addresses for those who provided them. The listing of faculty throughout the School's history has been brought up to date.

This is an exciting time at the School of Law. Anheuser-Busch Hall and our five year campaign, Building for a New Century, are well under way. Long recognized for our faculty's dedication to teaching and the growing influence of faculty scholarship, we are poised to join the ranks of the nation's finest law schools and to undertake a leading role in addressing national and international legal issues.

Our alumni have been enormously helpful to us. You have donated your time and resources to the campaign, and to help us recruit and place our students. Success in those areas will give our growing stature an additional boost.

I hope that you will use this Directory to keep up with classmates, and also to network with other alumni. If you need local counsel or someone with special expertise, you may find a fellow graduate meets your requirements.

Please take a few moments to familiarize yourself with the Directory. If you find errors or omissions, let us know. If information changes about you in the future, please communicate it to us promptly so that we can continue to keep in touch.

Best regards.

Cordially,

Dorsey D. Ellis, Jr.
Dean
